TOKYO GAME SHOW 2022 (TGS2022), to be held in-person at Makuhari Messe from September 15 (Thu.) to 18 (Sun.), will start general admission ticket for Overseas Visitors sales from noon, July 22 (Fri.), Japan Standard Time (JST.)

From the perspective of preventing the spread of COVID-19 infection, a limited number of tickets by date will be sold according to the upper limit of visitors in the venue (All tickets are sold only online and in advance.) As we hope that as many game fans as possible come and enjoy TGS2022, the afternoon of the second Business Day, September 16 (Fri.), will open for general visitors. We also recommend getting a TGS Supporters Club Ticket (with benefits) for those who want to benefit from priority entrance on the morning of the Public Day weekend.

To prevent the spread of COVID-19 at TGS2022, elementary schoolers or more minor children, including babies and toddlers, are NOT allowed to enter the venue even with their parent's attendance. More details on ticket sales for Overseas Visitors will be announced on the TGS2022 Official Website on July 15 (Wed.)

TGS2022, held at a physical venue for the first time in three years for both business and general visitors, will showcase new game titles designed for various platforms and invite visitors to experience what's happening at the forefront of the gaming industry, such as metaverse, blockchains, and indie developers. The theme of TGS2022 is "Nothing Stops Gaming." For this year, which marks a significant transition in our times, TGS will promote the ever-progressing attractiveness of games from various perspectives to the broader public. We are excited to welcome many game fans to the venue.

*TGS2022 Official Website for general visitors from Overseas will be launched on July 15.
